

PHS WEST SELECTED AS BEST PLACES TO WORK HONOREE BY MINNEAPOLIS/ST. PAUL BUSINESS JOURNAL.

This year marks the 23rd annual Best Places to Work awards for the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal. It's the Twin Cities' longest-running awards program recognizing great workplaces. Companies continue to adjust to changing ideas of what a great work environment looks and feels like, but this year's Best Places to Work honorees are finding success.

To determine our honorees, we sought nominations from companies in the Twin Cities region. Our research partner, Omaha, Neb.-based Quantum Workplace, then distributed surveys to all Minnesota-based employees of those nominated companies, asking participants to rate their employers on a variety of questions related to management, communication and more. Quantum tabulated the scores from those confidential surveys to identify our 70 honorees.

Our 2021 honorees will be featured in the Business Journal's August 13 Best Places to Work special edition, as well as online. The honorees are listed alphabetically now but will be ranked by their score in our Aug. 13 Best Places to Work publication.
